MICROBUSINESS WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT FUNDING!

Offer ends
31st July 2020

ARE YOU A SOLE TRADER? 1-5 EMPLOYEES?

Approximately 75% of businesses in the Tasmanian building and construction industry are sole traders or microbusinesses (1-5 employees).

Maintaining and developing a solid skills base will be crucial for every business as the industry seeks to manage the consequences of COVID-19.

To support microbusinesses to plan and pay for training and workforce development initiatives over the next 12 months, the TBCITB will provide $1000, in addition to standard training reimbursements for each eligible business in the month of July 2020.

TO BE ELIGIBLE, YOUR BUSINESS MUST:

- submit a short Workforce Development Plan using our easy online template
- lodge at least one TBCITB application for training funding linked to the Plan in July 2020, with a completion date before 30/06/2021
- excludes vehicle licencing upgrades

The TBCITB will provide in-person or phone support for any business requiring assistance to complete the Workforce Development Plan. You can request assistance by clicking 'Apply Now' below.

BONUS

For the first 50 eligible businesses!

- TBCITB will pay a further $1000 on completion of each additional course linked to the Plan
- up to a maximum of six (6) claims per business
- bonus payments are additional to standard training reimbursements
- all courses must be completed before 30/06/21 to qualify for the bonus payment
- excludes vehicle licencing upgrades

THAT'S A TOTAL OF
UP TO $6000 FOR THE FIRST 50
ELIGIBLE MICROBUSINESSES
